The seller ("Sedona"), by accepting a deposit amount specified above, agrees to hold the puppy for the buyer until release time. The deposit is a non-refundable deposit that will be subtracted from the total sale price. This deposit signifies the intent on the part of the Buyer to follow through with the Purchase of this Puppy. No puppy will be held for any individual before a deposit is received.

Once the puppy has received its first vaccinations and passed a full health check a pick up date for the puppy will be agreed and you will be required to pay the remaining amount prior or at the time of pickup.

If the puppy is found to be ill or unhealthy or for any reason does not pass the Veterinary Health check (that all puppies will receive before leaving for their new homes) a full refund of all monies paid or replacement puppy will be offered to the buyer.

Sedona reserves the right to refuse/cancel sale at any time. If the Sedona chooses to void the sales transaction for their own reasons a refund of the deposit will be provided.

The buyer is responsible for any shipping fees and or crates needed to deliver puppy safely to new home. We strongly recommend that you pick up your own puppy to ensure it goes directly from the care of Sedona into the care of the buyer. The buyer understands and agrees Sedona will take no responsibility for the puppy when it leaves the premises of Sedona. As soon as the puppy is out of our care and in the possession of the buyer or third party transport personnel, the puppy then becomes the buyers full responsibility.

Sedona will not be held responsible nor accountable for any costs involved with delayed transport, any case of illness, accident or death of the puppy once it leaves our care.

We recommend that you read our Sales Contract before placing a deposit.

By signing below, both Buyer and Seller understand and agree to all terms stated above and the Seller confirms that the deposit has been received.
